Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood. It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, traced to the kinneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important approximately app

When Pendry Stretched a Single Into a Home Run.

The Mets were anxious to win yes terday's game. So ambitious were they in this regard that "Chappy Chawles" McFarland, the pride of the Oklahoma City populace, assumed the task of working on the pitcher's mound. Mc-Farland pitched a good game but Ar-nold, although several years younger in service had him bested. McFarland uncorked some choice decelers. uncorked some choice deceivers, how-ever, and eight men walked right in and turned around and walked right ut again.

Arnold had the goods yesterday after-noon and the opposing batters were fruit for him. His curves were break-ing good and his control was much better than on any previous appearance in Topeka. With the ninth inning elimi-anted from the score card he would

The locals at this time, however, were equal to the occasion. Olson was the first man to bat and singled to left. McFarland threw the ball to catch him napping and the ball went up the hill in the southeast corner of the lot, Olson going to third. The next two men were easy outs and it looked as though another horse collar would have to appear on the score board. Lawler, who was thought to be on the verge of hitting walked. Hurlburt got a scratch single half way between pitcher's box and third hase and Olson scored. of throw to second and right back with the ball. Hurlburt tried to beat the game but was caught.

The rest of the scoring was pulled off in the last inning. White was the first to face Arnold but a little grounder to the pitcher was his limit. Wisser popped one out to Lawler and the catch looked so easy that Lawler dropped it, allowing the lad to go to second. Then Snocks hit one to Arnold, who in fielding to catch Wisser at the third station overthrew Runkel and Wisser scored the winning run. The inning was closed with a play one sees but once in a thousand games. McFarland flew out to Hurlburt with Snocks on third. Spec's arm is still in bad shape and he could not have thrown the ball over 20 feet. Ragan darted back to center and relayed the ball to Erwin who caught Snocks at the plate.

In the ninth Runkel and Olson singied in succession with one down but Erwin, the new catcher flew out to McFarland in right field and Halla batting for Arnold popped up to Wisser.

Red Davis is playing great ball now. He is making great catches in right field all the time and is hitting the ball with regularity. He is one of the most valuable players on the team, and if all the outfielders played the same kind of ball that Davis and Lawler do, we would have one of the best outfields in the league.
